As he waked along Inite avenue yesterday afternoon Detective O'Connor saw young Carey enter a pawnshop. He wore no overcoat and did not look as if he had anything to pawn.

As a suspicious-looking character, the officer followed him and entered the shop while Carey and the pawnbroker were engaged in a debate on the value of the necklace.

The broker was anxious to know where the valuable ornament came from. So was Detective O'Connor, who arrested Carey and took him to Police Headquarters.

After an investigation of several hours, it was learned last night from Gustave it was learned last night from Gustave H. CHIKO'S FACE. The Big Gorilla Has Been Photographed for The Sunday World. A great many pictures of monkeys and gorillas have been taken by amateur and professional photographers, but did you ever see a life size picture of Chiko, the new gorilla in Central Park? "The Sunday World" will have one. Probably not a citizen in New York will own
